Call for new ILRS and JSMC Doctoral Researcher Positions open now

September 20, 2017

At the International Leibniz Research School (ILRS) Jena, doctoral researchers pursue ambitious PhD projects studying the intricate mechanisms of microbial and biomolecular interactions under excellent research conditions. The research projects are supervised by a team of mentors and accompanied by an extensive qualification programme. Together with the Jena School for Microbial Communication (JSMC), ILRS Jena has just launched its call for application! There are 10 vacant projects. If you are interested in joining our lively scientific community, check out the offered projects:
